

Create Simple Web Activities for Language Teaching and Learning

Learn how to use computer tools for creating language-learning activities that can be delivered via the Internet. The tools are intended for teachers who have little time and limited technical skills, and they can be used on both Macintosh and Windows computers.

Learn how to:

- find authentic multimedia materials online
- create lessons that utilize authentic websites
- use free web tools to create your own webpages and activities (TrackStar, Web Poster Wizard)
- make rubrics easily with an online application (RubiStar)
- provide student listening practice through audio and video you create yourself (CLEAR tools)
- create student production activities with audio and video (CLEAR tools)

Date: Saturday, November 21st, 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Cost: $35* (includes lunch and all materials)

*University of Minnesota language staff can register for $20

Location: 30 Jones Hall, 27 Pleasant Street SE , University of Minnesota East Bank

Registration: Is limited to the first 24 participants. A confirmation letter and map will be sent prior to the workshop electronically. Registration should be sent to the CARLA office at least 5 business days prior to the workshop to ensure availability of food and materials.

Note: Because CARLA Workshops are highly subsidized, registration fees cannot be refunded.

Questions: Call the Center for Advanced Research on Language Acquisition (CARLA) at: (612)626-8600, or e-mail carla@umn.edu
